Registration for the event starts at 12.45HRs with the seminar starting at 13.00HRs prompt.

The Inn does serve bar meals at lunch time if you would like to take lunch before the workshop.

Getting to the Event

By Road: Sat Nav: please use MK11 1AH.

From J15 of the M1 take the A508 towards Stony Stratford. At the A5 roundabout take the Towcester Road, follow the signs for Old Stratford and Stony Stratford. Travel through Old Stratford and turn right toward Stony Stratford. Join the High Street – the hotel is located on the left.

From the West and M40, exit at Junction 10 onto the A43, after about 7 miles take the 3rd exit of the roundabout onto the A422, stay on this road for 14 miles until you come to the A5 roundabout and then follow directions above

Parking:

There is parking at the venue (behind the hotel). The parking is accessed from Vicarage Road (parallel to the High Street) rather than the High Street itself. Click here to download a map of the town and car parks www.stonystratfordbusiness.org.uk/stonystratfordcarparks.pdf

The parking behind the hotel is long term, delegates need to be careful not to park in any of the short term car parks as that they are maximum 2 hours. The map indicates which are the long and short stay car parks.

Rail Services:

Stony Stratford does not have its own railway station but Wolverton Station is only 1.4 miles from Stony Stratford. Wolverton is served by London Midland with regular trains departing from London Euston (changing at Milton Keynes Central). To find out more and plan your journey, visit www.nationalrail.co.uk

Guest Houses and Hotels:

The Cock Hotel – EVENT HOTEL The Cock Hotel

This historic 15th Century Coaching Inn is situated in the picturesque Market Town of Stony Stratford, 'The Town on The Road'. The Cock Hotel rose to national pre-eminence in the great age of coach travel, with as many as 100 coaches a day coming into the Town. The Hotel was the official staging post for the famous Manchester Flier. An original timetable shows that the Flier left London at 8.
